Exercise: Participle constructions to replace relative clauses and adverbial clauses

Rewrite the sentences on the left using participle constructions.

1	The pupil who was sitting next to me looked really stressed.	<pre><hidden answer="" show="">The pupil sitting next to me looked really stressed.</hidden></pre> /hidden>
2	That morning, I saw a man who walked along the river.	<pre><hidden answer="" show="">That morning, I saw a man walking along the river. </hidden></pre>
3	Because they were tired of the bad weather, the family decided to finish their holiday early.	<pre><hidden answer="" show="">(Being) tired of the bad weather, the family decided to finish their holiday early. </hidden></pre>
4	We visited a city which was mentioned in our travel guide.	<pre><hidden answer="" show="">We visited a city mentioned in our travel guide. </hidden></pre>
5	Although they were very fit, the basketball players got tired at the end of the match.	<pre><hidden answer="" show="">Although being very fit, the basketball players got tired at the end of the match. </hidden></pre>
6	Many of the wild animals that once lived in the USA can only be found in zoos today.	<pre><hidden answer="" show="">Many of the wild animals once living in the USA can only be found in zoos today. </hidden></pre>
7	When I came into the room, I realised that all my class mates were already there.	<hidden answer="" show="">Coming into the room, I realised that all my class mates were already there.</hidden>
8	Since ("weil") they had heard about the flood, many people came to help.	<pre><hidden answer="" show="">Having heard about the flood, many people came to help. </hidden></pre>
9	The films that are made about Indians are not very realistic.	<pre><hidden answer="" show="">The films being made about Indians are not very realistic. </hidden></pre>
10	When the plane landed in Sydney, it broke one wheel.	<pre><hidden answer="" show="">Landing in Sydney, the plane broke one wheel.</hidden></pre>