Reflexive pronouns (tandem exercise)

- Fill in the correct personal pronoun or reflexive pronoun or no pronoun at all.
- Have a look at the example in the first line of the table to understand how to do the exercise.

| Reflexive pronoun, personal pronouns or no pronoun at all? | | Reflexive pronoun, personal pronouns or no pronoun at all? | |
|---|---|---|---|
| ExampleLast week, Tom talked to ~ about the soccer game. | | ExampleLast week, Tom talked to me about the soccer game. | |
| 1 | When grandpa is alone he sometimes talks to ~. | 1 | When grandpa is alone he sometimes talks to himself. |
| 2 | When I won the first prize in the table tennis match, a lot of people talked to ~. | 2 | When I won the first prize in the table tennis match, a lot of people talked to me. |
| 3 | On Saturday, Sarah and I met ~ at the cinema to watch a movie. | 3 | On Saturday, Sarah and I met at the cinema to watch a movie. |
| 4 | All the kids in our class made ~ funny hats for the party. | 4 | All the kids in our class made themselves funny hats for the party. |
| 5 | Last weekend, I bought ~ the first ice-cream this year. | 5 | Last weekend, I bought myself the first ice-cream this year. |
| 6 | Do you want me to help you with your test? — No, I can do it ~. | 6 | Do you want me to help you with your test? — No, I can do it myself. |
| 7 | I really enjoyed myself at the party. | 7 | I really enjoyed ~ at the party. |
| 8 | When we put on those funny hats and looked in the mirror, we had to laugh at ourselves. | 8 | When we put on those funny hats and looked in the mirror, we had to laugh at ~. |
| 9 | I can show you how to make a cake. — No! I can do it myself. | 9 | I can show you how to make a cake. — No! I can do it ~. |
| 10 | Peter thinks that many people want to listen to him when he sings. | 10 | Peter thinks that many people want to listen to ~ when he sings. |
| 11 | Peter really likes to listen to himself when he sings. | 11 | Peter really likes to listen to ~ when he sings. |
| 12 | I ate five pieces of cake this afternoon. Now I feel terrible. | 12 | I ate five pieces of cake this afternoon. Now I feel ~ terrible. |

Didaktische Hinweise

english, exercises, grammar, tandem, folientraining