

Interview with Johanna

Names of interviewers: Chiara, Fabian

Transcript (written version of the audio track)

Did every teacher have his own classroom ?

- It was not that they have a big teacherroom so the students have to change the rooms because the teachers have all their own room with their own stuff and decoration in there.

How long takes one lesson?

- I think it was like here so 90 minutes but i'm not sure.

Do they have a break?

- Yes but between the lesson they only have 5-10 minutes to change the room but they doesn't have big brakes, they only have the lunchbake but I doesnt know how long it takes.

Did the school have an own coat of arms?

- Yes they have the grizly.

How are the people there?

- There are not very different from here most are very kind and the gastfamilies are very nice and open.

Is the school stressfull and why?

- Maybe for them because they have A and B days and every seccond day it's the same. It's sressfull with the classtests.

Would you go to America again and why?

- Yes because it's a different country and I really loved to travelad to see different cultures and cities.

How does the exchange work and did you think it was a good experience for you?

- Yes it works good. You must full out questions and after three months you get the informations of your partner. The exchange was three weeks and in the summer they came to us.

Reported version

Did every teacher have his own classroom ?

Johanna told us that it was not that they have a big teacherroom so the students have to change the rooms because the teachers have all their own rooms with their own stuff and decoration in there.

How long takes one lesson?

Johanna said she thinked it was like here so 90 minutes but she was not sure.

Do they have a break?

Johanna also said that they have breaks but between the lesson they only have 5-10 minutes to change the room but they doesn't have big breakes, they only have the lunchbreake but she doesnt know how long it takes.

Did the school have an own coat of arms?

She said that they have a grizly.

How are the people there?

Johanna told us that they were not very different from here most are very kind and the gastfamilies are very nice and open.

Is the school stressfull and why?

Johanna said maybe it could be stressful for them because they had A and B days and every second day was the same that could be stressfull with the classtests.

Would you go to America again and why?

Johanna said yes because it's a different country and she really loved to travelad to saw different cultures and cities.

How does the exchange work and did you think it was a good experience for you?

She said that it worked good, but you must full out questions and after three months you get the informations of your partner. She also said that the exchange was three weeks long and in the summer they camed to Germany.